Congressmen Charge Burleson With "Passing The Buck" Because Of Threatened Nation-Wide Strike Of Telegraphers

SENATE TO PRESS LEGISLATION FOR WIRE CONTROL REPEAL

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Postmaster General Burleson's order abolishing the wire control board in New York and restoring the operation of the telephone and telegraph properties to officials of the companies, acting as agents of the government, was attacked today by members of congress, some of whom charged that Mr. Burleson had "passed the buck" because of a threatened nation-wide strike of members of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America.

Immediately after Mr. Burleson's order was issued last night, S. J. Kunkin, president of the telegraphers' union, ordered a strike of members of the union employed by the Western Union Telegraph company in the ten southeastern states, and reports from the chief cities in that territory today showed that scores of operators, as well as some clerks and messengers, had quit their jobs. Officials of the company at Atlanta said that with the wires again under company operation, there would be a flash light, while those of the union indicated that, if necessary, a nation-wide strike would be called.

TO PROTECT AMERICA'S NEW DYE INDUSTRY

WASHINGTON, June 6.—First steps toward drafting tariff legislation will begin Tuesday by the house ways and means committee, Chairman Fordney announcing today that hearings would be started then to determine what legislation is necessary to protect the American dye industry that sprang up during the war. The bill, a separate measure, relating only to this industry, would be drafted by the committee and that hearings probably would continue several days.

RED FLAG EDITOR IS EXECUTED

BERLIN, Thursday, June 5.—(By the A. P.)—Herr Levine, editor of the Red Flag of Munich, and one of the leaders in the communist uprising in Bavaria, were executed at midnight last night, according to Albert Zehner, of Augsburg. Herr Nissen, another of the communist leaders, also has been executed, notices from the state.

PLAN FIGHT ON AMERICAN PACKERS

LONDON, June 6.—The New Zealand government has received advices from London indicating that Great Britain will ask New Zealand to help her fight the American packers, says a dispatch to the Daily Mail from Christchurch, New Zealand. The suggestion is that an agreement be made to sell New Zealand's meat products in London at a certain price. Then, adds the dispatch, "if the trust reduces prices Great Britain and New Zealand must fight it on its own ground."

CZECHO TROOPS SUSTAIN DEFEAT

PRAGUE, Thursday, June 5.—(By the Associated Press)—Admission was made today by Dr. Fodor, Czecho minister here, that the Hungarian Czecho legion army had achieved an unexpected success over the Czecho troops in Slovakia, who were reported still to be retreating. The situation in Slovakia is said to be very serious, with the fiercest districts in the hands of the Hungarians, whose advance, it is believed, can be checked only by the assistance of French troops.

INVADING FORCES ARE DRIVEN OUT

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The invading forces have been completely driven out of Costa Rican territory and have taken refuge in Nicaragua, said a cablegram received today by Carlos Lara, Costa Rican representative here. The message further stated it was believed the Nicaraguan government would concentrate against the forces and thus prevent the shedding of blood and the stirring up of hatred between the two republics.

"No American armies have been landed in any Costa Rican port," declared Mr. Lara in a statement referring to press dispatches saying U. S. Marines had landed at Puntarenas and Port Limon.

TEACHERS GET MORE PAY
YOUNGSTOWN, O., June 6.—The board of education last night voted to increase teachers' salaries, approximately 25 percent in all classes.

PLANS NEW ATTEMPT TO FLY ACROSS SEA

P. P. Rayham seated in airplane.

P. P. Rayham, British aviator who attempted to start across the Atlantic the day Harry Hawker and Mackenzie Grieve began their unsuccessful trip, is still in St. Johns, Newfoundland, waiting for a new plane to pilot across the ocean. His plane was wrecked and his pilot, C. E. W. Morgan, injured when the plane crashed to the ground when they attempted to take the air.

"Tropical Madness" Afflicts Germans

BERLIN, May 23.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Frenzied uneasiness and depression which manifest themselves in touchiness, ruminations, various other ailments and in sleeplessness are afflicting the German delegates at Versailles, according to the correspondent of the Berlin Gazette, and which he whimsically terms "tropical madness." That is an ailment known to French foreign legionaries as "Kaboul."

The first to be affected was a surgeon who fell ill with a raging toothache and intense nervousness. Then a councillor attached to the delegation caught the strange malady and insisted on having a gramophone play during conferences he attended. He wanted American records principally.

Many members of the delegation began to suffer pains in the back and joints, others from colic and the malady from headaches and sleeplessness.

"The food," the correspondent says, "is getting on every one's nerves. They all feel like geese in a cage before being slaughtered. It is the wild enclosure that makes every one wild."

Senate Orders Probe Of Leak On The Treaty

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Investigation of how copies of the peace treaty with Germany reached persons in New York was ordered today by the senate.

Without a record vote and after a sharp debate, the senate adopted a resolution by Senator Hitchcock, Democrat of Nebraska, providing for an inquiry into charges made on the floor two days ago by Chairman Lodge and Senator Borah, of the foreign relations committee.

Action on the Hitchcock resolution came after a sub-resolution by Senator Kellogg, Republican, of Minnesota, had been withdrawn at the request of Senator Lodge. Senator Hitchcock charged the substitute would not authorize the investigation he proposed in his resolution.

Immediately after the vote on the Hitchcock resolution, the senate adopted another by Senator Johnson, Republican of California, asking the state department to furnish the senate a copy of the peace treaty.

Both resolutions had been subject

"VIOLATES NONE OF WILSON'S PRINCIPLES"

PARIS, June 6.—(Havas)—"I am convinced that our treaty project violates none of my principles," President Wilson is quoted by the Matin, as having said when he was made acquainted with the German counter proposals to the peace treaty. "If I held a contrary opinion, I would not hesitate to confess it and would endeavor to correct this error. The treaty as drawn up, however, entirely conforms with my fourteen points."

Fear Reign Of Terror In Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, June 6.—Arising upon reports that the radical elements involved in the Winnipeg general strike were threatening to launch a campaign of terrorism, the Winnipeg city government today decided to increase its special constable force to 3,000 men, mostly returned soldiers. One thousand constables have been sworn in, it was announced.

On any occasion when a large group of returned soldiers are seen in the city, they are immediately surrounded by the police. The city government has also issued an order that any person who is seen in the city with a gun or other weapon, or who is seen in the city with a person who is known to be a radical, shall be liable to arrest.

Several thousand returned soldiers, opposed to the strike, held their second meeting today and threats were openly made that unless certain of the strike leaders are taken in custody, "the loyal soldiers will be heard from."

A printed declaration in the strike bulletin that "gunmen imported from the United States" were on their way to Winnipeg to oppose the striking forces and precipitate trouble, was branded as false at the city hall. It was said that the purpose of the article probably was "intended to incite union men."

FAVOR REPEAL OF DAYLIGHT SAVING LAW

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Favorable report on the bill to repeal the daylight saving law on the last Sunday in October was voted today by the house interstate commerce committee.

This plan is carried out, therefore, it seems probable that Germany's decision will be made known at least by next Saturday, June 14.

Reports from Paris indicate that immediately after receiving the allied reply, Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau, chief of the German delegation, will leave Versailles for Berlin, where he will hold a final consultation with Philipp Scheidemann, the chancellor. Should Germany decide to sign the treaty, the report will return to Versailles upon a rejection of the terms, notification of that fact will be sent to the peace conference from Berlin.

GERMAN REQUEST REFUSED
Diplomatics state that the council of four has reached a decision to refuse Germany's request that a third round of negotiations be held in the treaty. There seemed to be a well-defined sentiment in the council to decline this request, only Premier Clemenceau being known to object to granting that commission.

Nothing is known as to the reason for the council's refusal to name the town, which news reports last forecast at approximately $25,000,000,000. Austrian peace activities seem likely to be renewed at St. Germain tomorrow. Dr. Karl Renner, the head of the Austrian delegation, has been in conference at Fribourg, with Dr. Otto Bauer, the Austrian foreign minister, and is expected to be back in St. Germain on Saturday with his two colleagues, who also took part in the conference with Dr. Bauer.

REFLECTS AUSTRIAN OPINION
As reflecting Austrian opinion on the terms of the treaty presented at St. Germain last Monday, Premier Selftz, of the Austrian republic, is quoted as stating that the terms could not be enforced upon the Austrian people and that it would be "dangerous for the man who signed the treaty."

Formal protest to the peace conference has been made by Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau as to the alleged activities of the allied armies of occupation in furthering the movement for the establishment of a Rhenish republic. Premier Paderewski, of Poland, has made preparations before the council of four relating to proposed changes in the frontier between Germany and Poland. Important alterations in the boundaries are said to be under consideration, and efforts are being made to induce the Poles to consent to a plebiscite which will determine the sovereignty of Silesia.

VIENNA, Tuesday, June 3.—(By the A. P.)—Before leaving this city for a short sojourn in the country, where he will take a rest, President Setz said regarding the terms of peace:

"They surely are only proposals. What a terrible disappointment Austria is for me. This is driving me to despair. The terms are also hard for the allies, as they mean the feeding of Bolshevism, against which we are helpless, especially from the Hungarians, who are uniting with new military successes. I have no power to enforce such terms upon the population of German-Austria and it will be dangerous for the man who signs them."

Dr. Karl Renner, head of the German-Austrian peace mission, will attempt to secure a verbal discussion of the terms at St. Germain.

AMERICANS
ORDERS IGNORED
COTTAGE, June 4.—American authorities here have sent word to the over president of the Rhine province to ignore orders from Berlin transferring him to another province, the Americans believing that this move was a political one and connected with Berlin's efforts to counteract the movement for the establishment of a Rhenish republic. It was declared in Wiesbaden on Sunday that Berlin had also ordered the removal of the over president of the Treves district and that the Americans had instructed this official to ignore his instructions from Berlin.

BURLESON SAYS HE HAS NOT TURNED WIRES BACK TO PRIVATE OWNERSHIP

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Mr. Burleson today said to Chairman Cummings a letter declaring that his order yesterday had been misconstrued; that he had not turned back the wires to private ownership and that no such action was contemplated.

Mr. Burleson's letter follows: "An order issued by me yesterday relative to the operation of the telegraph and telephone systems has been construed by some as actual return of the properties to the owners. No such action has been taken by me, nor is any contemplated.

"This order simply dissolves the operating board appointed by me under date of December 13, 1918, and directs that the systems again be operated by the regular operating officials under government supervision.

"Responsibility of the government to these systems in nowise ceases. It being evident that these properties are to be returned in the very near future, it was necessary for the postmaster-general to take steps immediately to set up the regular operating organization of the companies, so that when the properties are turned back, it can be done without confusion or interruption to the service, which was the purpose of the order. This order in nowise affects the legislation pending before your committee or before congress. It will enable the companies to begin steps immediately to prepare the data and collect their information to be submitted to the state commissions for the rate cases which will probably be taken up immediately after the period of government control ends."

ADRIATIC QUESTION UP AGAIN

PARIS, June 6.—When the council of four met this morning, Premier Orlando, of Italy, was absent. This led to the belief that the Adriatic question was again under consideration. It is understood that no further progress had been made by the various elements working on the solution of this problem.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Hope is expressed in peace conference circles in Paris that the allied negotiator in the German counter-proposals will be ready for presentation Monday. It is understood that with this reply the Germans also will receive notification that the discussion of the terms has been finally closed and will be given a period of not less than three days, or more than five, in which to accept or reject the treaty.

If this plan is carried out, therefore, it seems probable that Germany's decision will be made known at least by next Saturday, June 14.

Reports from Paris indicate that immediately after receiving the allied reply, Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau, chief of the German delegation, will leave Versailles for Berlin, where he will hold a final consultation with Philipp Scheidemann, the chancellor. Fear Reign Of Terror

Brigadier General H. B. Ketchen, commander of the military forces in the Manitoba district, in his first public address since the beginning of the Winnipeg general strike, today told a mass meeting of several thousand returned soldiers that steps were being taken to deal fully with revolutionaries and undesirable in Winnipeg and other places in Canada.

"When the government does act in connection with the Winnipeg upheaval, I am sure that you soldiers will agree that when I broadcast today that action was pending to deal with revolution and Bolshevism that I did not tell you all," said Gen. Ketchen. He received a tremendous ovation.

The meeting was held at the city hall. No parade or public demonstration followed, but a number of the soldiers went to the city hall to be sworn in as constables.

VIOLENCE SUBSIDES IN TOLEDO

TOLEDO, O., June 6.—The most significant development today in the Willamette labor trouble is the action of Polish citizens in preparing to ask a grand jury investigation of the recent night rioting when soldier-police killed two persons and wounded a score of others.

At a meeting of Polish citizens last night, a thousand dollars was readily subscribed to pay the expenses of obtaining an investigation. The rioting occurred in the Polish settlement in front of No. 11 engine house on La-grange street.

There has been no further evidence of violence, and the plant of the Overland remains closed. Both sides are holding their time until tomorrow morning when Judge Kilis, in federal court, will hear the application of an Overland agency for an injunction against the unions involved in the labor trouble. The Dial-Overland company, of Charlotte, N. C., in its application, declares it has suffered loss because the unions forced the factory to close, with consequent failure to ship automobiles to the agency.

The unions will be represented by local counsel.

TO SPREAD NEWS OF Y. W. C. A.'S VALUE IN THEIR BATTLE TORN HOME, POLAND

The Y. W. C. A., an institution started in America for the protection of American girls, has, with mothering arms, stretched across the continent and has become an international organization. Proof of this came recently when 100 Polish women returned to the home of their birth, educated by the Y. W. C. A. in America to work for the betterment of Poland. These women, their hearts torn with sorrow, watched their country getting the worst of a hard deal, were glad with anxiety as they watched the progress of the World War. All the time they were striving under the direction of the Y. W. C. A. to make themselves ready for service to their war-torn states. They came to the land of the free and now they are going to take freedom back to their own land.

The Young Women's Christian Association is abreast of the times, striving to prepare for emergencies.

To invest in the Y. W. C. A. is to encourage a world wide organization—the largest in the world devoted to women.

The local drive for funds to carry on this work will open on June 15th.

BOY SCOUT WEEK JUNE 8-14 IS TO BE BIG EVENT FOR BOYHOOD

The period beginning June 8 and continuing to the day June 14, will be one of the greatest in the history of the American boyhood, for it has been set aside by the President of the United States as "Boy Scout Week," a recognition of what the scouts did for the country during the war.

The Boy Scouts are always "prepared" and when the country called on them to do their share towards making America's fight for right victorious, they pitched in with a will and sold $300,000,000 worth of Liberty Bonds and $30,000,000 worth of War Savings Stamps.

Wasn't that splendid for boys? And yet that wasn't all. They did, they helped the war department by feeding through the woods and back yards and out-of-the-way places and found enough black walnut trees to furnish over 20,000,000 feet of lumber for airplane propellers.

But even then their work wasn't over.

After the first big battle across the sea, it was discovered that fruit and vegetables were needed in the manufacture of gas masks. Well, you remember the first that went out for these "stumps" the scouts threw themselves into the task heart and soul and how many do you think they collected.

Enough for a half million masks. They took up job after job and ever each through to successful conclusion. They distributed more than 20,000,000 pieces of literature for the government and served as forward line messengers to the Red Cross.

Y. M. C. A. Knights of Columbus, Irish Welfare Board, Salvation Army, American Liberty Association and every other worthy cause. In a word the Boy Scouts of America proved to the nation that they could always be relied upon.

That is why Senator Warren C. Harding, Governor James M. Cox, State School Superintendent T. E. Pearson and others are appealing to Congress to raise at least $100,000 for the Scouts. That is why the biggest even in each county have rallied to the scout cause and are to conduct a drive for associate membership at one dollar per member. This money will be used to increase the Boy Scout movement until it reaches a large proportion of all the boys in Ohio.

The local Scouts are going to figure prominently in church services June 8th. The boys will attend church in uniform, a bugler will give the call to arms and there will be a special sermon, and there will be an impressive call for volunteer scout masters.

Scout's County's quota of associate membership is 600, but the workers involved in Scout leaders is one of the most important phases of Boy Scout week in Portsmouth.

What Causes Wrinkles? What's The Remedy?

Stop to consider what produces wrinkles and sagging of skin. Premature aging, loss of elasticity, the skin's ability to resist its outward flimsiness and wrinkles. The skin then is too large for the flesh underneath and it sags and wrinkles as it used to in wrinkles or sagging.

It is plain that to tighten the skin, make it fit the face perfectly, in every place will effectively remove the wrinkles and looseness. This is easily and harmoniously accomplished by dissolving an excess of sebum (grease) in a soft part of which is used in the skin as a face wash. The ingredients you can get at any drug store. The results are surprising. The skin immediately tightens up, becoming firm and fresh as in youth. Every wrinkle and sag are affected at once.

PARADES ARE BANNED IN WINNIPEG

WINNIPEG, June 6.—In a formal proclamation published this morning, Mayor C. F. Gray ordered the stopping of all parades and forbade the congregation of crowds on the city streets.

WINNIPEG, June 6.—Strengthening of Winnipeg's police force by one thousand veterans as special constables caused an increase during the night in minor disturbances and personal encounters, but no unusual demonstrations occurred. Conciliatory efforts were practically at standstill as the general strike today entered its fourth week. Members of the veterans' association here who are opposed to the general strike, have been gathering strength in their counter demonstrations and hundreds of them volunteered to give Mayor Charles F. Gray assistance in maintaining order. Cooler heads among the leaders prevented discussion at yesterday's meeting of a parade to the trades and labor temple.

Strikers and strike sympathizers, including many returned soldiers, continue their parades also, but their demonstrations have so far been un-derly.

The Markets

NEW YORK STOCKS

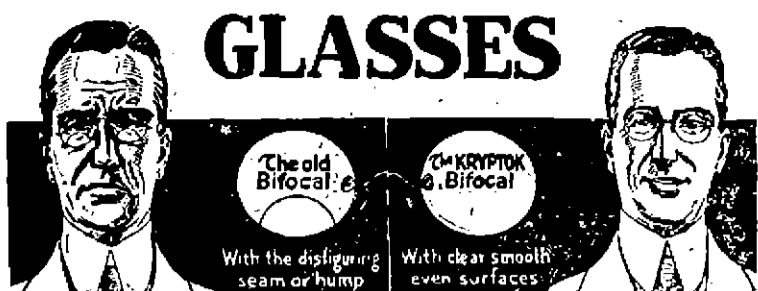

NEW YORK, June 6.—Bullish of sentiment on the stock market today, many popular issues showing high resumption of activity and public interest. The market yesterday's rise was again repeated, including tobacco, food, oil, and oil shares. The market closed with a high point for the day, 111 and top figures were 111 and 111. The market was held by other representative issues. Maritime Marine preferred, 12 1/2, attributed to opposition to plan of repatriation. Reading, 12 1/2, and Pacific each ruled at 12 1/2, while gains in the specialties had a further chance to advance. Sentiment today followed the same, looking out of week-end movements during Tuesday's trading. The closing reports of trade and simple supplies and money were primary causes for renewed public buying. Low priced rails were in greater favor. U. S. Steel reached 111 1/2 and General Motors touched 111 1/2, a gain of 8 1/2 points. Profit taking sales cut heavily into the advances here and there but the general buying movement was so broad that this had no appreciable effect on sentiment. The financial position and the dividend outlook for various properties was big factors in today's comprehensive rise in prices on the stock exchange. Rails were better represented, favorites, sales approximated 1,500,000 shares. The closing was easy.

ONLY 8 ARRESTS MADE IN 9 DAYS; NOT ONE CAUGHT FOR INTOXICATION

Nine full days have elapsed since the coming of the dry era in this city and during the time but 8 offenders have fallen into the hands of the minions of the law and of these not a single one was arrested for intoxication but instead all faced Mayor Kaps for disorderly conduct.

Officers are so quiet about police headquarters, according to "Turkey Joe" Stokley that even the cockroaches are leaving the city prison in droves. The says the bugs are lonesome and are migrating to Ashland and other wet centers.

Thirteenth-Century Costumes.
There was very little difference in the dress of the noble and working classes, writes Melvyn Stone, in "The Bankside Costume Book for Children," referring to women's dress in the thirteenth century. Working women sometimes wore henns, and a simple which seems to have been in one piece and knotted on one side of the head, having long, trailing ends. Young girls wore hose, or had the head covered with a small piece of stuff, the hair being rolled up into perfect knobs over the ears, and the corners of the stuff twisted over these, hiding the hair. Tresses were loose but were often turned up at the bottom for about eight inches, fastened at intervals with some sort of pin, and showing a short undershirt (probably this was an under-sleeve, but a petticoat will do as well). Sometimes the under-sleeve was turned back over the knees where would be like the modern.

When you go Picnicking or Camping

Every member of the party is sure to enjoy a rippity, refreshing beverage—especially when it comes time to munch away at the good things in the hamper.

Sheboygan Ginger Ale is the beverage to take along. Chill the bottles; then wrap in paper and they will be nice and cool when the time comes to open them.

The fine Jamaica ginger from which it is prepared counteracts the congestive effect most cold liquids have—and Sheboygan is made in a big, scrupulously clean plant—is as pure as pure can be.

Portsmouth Thrills With Pride Over P. H. S. Graduating Class

At the High School auditorium Tuesday evening Portsmouth people gathered with pride over the 80 graduates who were the honored participants in the commencement exercises. The girls were beautifully gowned and adorned with picture-perfect hair, and the boys were in the height of their manly attire. The class formation was an inspiring sight. Above them were the words of their motto, "On the Upward Trail," which they had carried with them from the very beginning of their high school career.

And then, that the class would not feel that the crowning moment of their lives had arrived, and perhaps to fill them anew with the longing which started them "On the Upward Trail," Mr. M. H. Lichter, D. D., pastor of the Epworth Memorial church in Cleveland, the commencement speaker, began his address on the "New Citizenship" and stirred the hearts of all his listeners as he defined the new citizen as a man trained for a vocation, balanced by an education, and inspired by an outlook.

Some of the things Mr. Lichter said will live in the minds of those who were fortunate enough to hear him last night and will no doubt send many of them on broader paths.

He spoke of the "jazz restlessness" in America and in England and said the world faces an emotional crisis, the reaction from the war.

"No man can stop and calmly think things out. This is the gravest problem we face. We seem to be uplifted to the vanguard of the world, and one can check his brain at the door and still enjoy a wonderful show."

But underlying this, in a haze of dream, is the real ideal of communal service and Mr. Lichter made the theme a practical thing in what followed in defining the new citizen: "A man trained for a vocation, balanced by an education, and inspired by an outlook."

Before the war everything in education was "specialized." The world went mad over vocational guidance. Technical schools flourished. More was thought of making a thing than of making a life.

"It was 10 years of technical training with an absence of liberal culture which made of Germany the thing that shocked the world," said Mr. Lichter.

"I am pleading for the college of liberal arts," he said turning to the student body.

"Culture will figure more in the life of tomorrow than in the life of yesterday. 'Get a background of culture—broad, comprehensive—before focusing on a specialty,' he urged.

"Then Mr. Lichter spoke of the wonders of the classical course. How Latin becomes a thing of wonder in tracing the origins of the political and social standards of today.

History in his words tired and thrilled with possibility.

Civics was not the mere structure and technique of government, but the philosophy of government; the "thing" not the process.

Inspection of modern languages he commented upon the fact that England which had been right then any other nation to possess an hysterical hatred of Germany was taking a broader stand and in making its new appointments in modern languages urged the young men to study French, German, Italian, Russian and Spanish.

"The people who would destroy the German language and the German literature would lose the marvelous past of the old German humanists," Mr. Lichter said in calling the names of the great writers.

"There is much discussion over the definition for a 'man' but here is mine: 'A man who has a vocation and not an avocation.' One who cannot talk outside his business. A man you have defined when you have named his vocation. As the old proverb says 'Born a man, died a greener,' or whatever his vocation was."

Dismissing this phrase Mr. Lichter who had the audience with him every minute, turned to include the student body and the audience, as well, saying, "We talk of brotherly love and do we practice it?"

"Oh, we thought that out of the war would spring the new camaraderie known to men in the trenches—of that large unity. But the war is over and we who were the decisive factors for democracy in the war stand defeated in the league to enforce democracy."

"The Yankers of Europe, do you know them?" continued Mr. Lichter. "They came to America with the star of hope in their eyes and we crowd them into the foreign districts. We do not try to know them. We are hopelessly prejudiced. One greatest battle should be against prejudice."

"Do this," he urged, "for one half of your day be king of your own world and for the other half of the day be slave outside of your own world."

"Balance your vocation with an avocation."

"Know some one, of a different creed, a different race, a different nationality, and then consider how prejudiced are those new and exquisite points of contact."

"And these," facing the students, "are the prophets of the new citizenship," concluded Mr. Lichter whose address was one of the most inspiring ever delivered in the city of Portsmouth.

"The Stars and Stripes Forever" sung by the graduating class was a fitting close to the evening.

A feature of the evening was the orchestra made up from the graduating class which played "Flower Song" by S. C. Morrison. The students forming the orchestra included: Howard Lowry, Bernice Kibbler, Carmon Oakley, Mary Kent, Grace Mowsey, and Hazel Barngrover, and their music was one of the charming features of the evening's entertainment.

The choruses were especially pleasing.

In the invocation Rev. D. C. Reed prayed that the graduates would "draw the best from life as life would draw the best from them," and that was the general feeling of the entire audience, the people combining with it the hope that when the exceptional youth of Class 1919 had gone out into the world and obtained the best that they would return to the home city to carry on the local affairs of state.

Come--Hear The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph With a Soul"

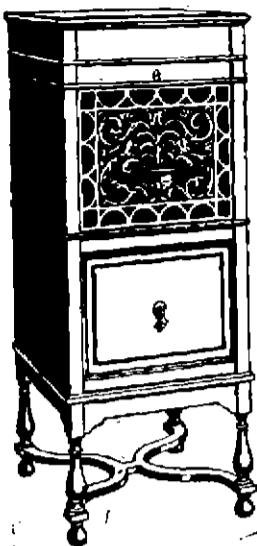

Our store is the mecca for music lovers of Portsmouth and neighboring communities. We have opened our Edison department and introduced the favorite invention of that master of inventors, Thomas A. Edison.

Not a Talking Machine

The New Edison is not a "talking machine." In order clearly to distinguish the life-like Re-Creations of the New Edison from the lifeless, mechanical reproductions of ordinary "talking machines," the music critics have coined a new expression—Music's Re-Creation, a new art, the secrets of which are known only to Mr. Edison and his most trusted associates.

Hear and Be Convinced

We could write entire pages about Music's Re-Creation in an effort to convince you that no other sound-reproducing invention can possibly compare with the New Edison, but one sweet note of the voice of Anna Case singing "Depuis le jour" or one ripple of melody from the bow of Albert Spalding playing the "Meditation from Thais" would convince you as no printed words ever could.

Official Laboratory Model
(William and Mary Design)

We could tell you that more than one million music lovers and the music critics of over one thousand representative American newspapers have publicly acknowledged their inability to distinguish between the voices of living artists and the New Edison's Re-Creation of them when heard side by side. Thirty Edison artists (great singers and instrumentalists) have participated in tests which have convinced these music lovers and critics that the New Edison is truly "The Phonograph with a Soul."

A New Art—Music's Re-Creation

We could tell you that The New Edison has a GENUINE DIAMOND stylus reproducer (no needles to change) We could tell you that Edison Re-Creations are almost un-wearable and unbreakable. We could tell you many other remarkable things about the New Edison and Edison Re-Creations, but the New Edison itself can tell you far better in music-language just what we are trying to impress upon you here—that it is an instrument by means of which Thomas A. Edison has given to the world a new art—Music's Re-Creation.

You owe it to your love of music to visit our store and acquaint yourself with Music's Re-Creation.

BOY SCOUT SWIMMING CLASS OPENS

Whoop! Splash! Splash! Whoop! The Boy Scouts' swimming class has opened and the youngsters were in under the watchful eye and supervision of their scout executive. Over in the Ketchikan shore where the willows made a splendid dressing room, where the back sloped gently down and a boy had to wade out a long way to be over his depth and where the current was so sluggish as to be hardly noticeable, the youngsters splashed and frolicked in the water under the eye of their leader, Mr. Gillilan. At the beginning of the swim and before the "end turtle" were allowed to go in Mr. Gillilan made those who could swim swim 20 yards to prove their ability. Then he went in with those who could not swim and made them stay between him and the bank where they were safe. He started teaching those who wanted to learn and soon expects to have quite a graduating class of his own. Before he left the water he made all those he was uncertain about go on shore and get dressed. The class will meet and catch the 2:30 p. m. boat every day, except tomorrow and Sunday, returning by the 4:30 boat, and always under the scout executive's care. Several swam the 20 yards and passed their first class swimming test.

37TH ANNIVERSARY

Have been in the grocery business in Portsmouth 37 years. Have sold on credit and delivered 36 1-2 years of that time. My losses have been very, very small.

Am now selling for cash, not because your credit isn't good or that I am afraid to trust you, but because it enables me to sell cheaper and is less work and worry for me.

Glennwood which furnishes so many beautiful spots, pleasing to the eye of the pleasure-seekers. Selecting one of these spots they enjoyed a sumptuous picnic supper, and while busily engaged in social chat, a visitor—a large copperhead snake—crept unobserved, under the carriage where little Lillian Sparks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sparks was sleeping, and took up his abode. His presence was soon discovered and the ladies, armed with stones, clubs and what-not, soon killed their unwelcome visitor. The honor of having killed the first snake of this kind in this vicinity this season goes to the members of this class. Those enjoying the affair were: Mercedes Merrell Duffel, Edward Sparks, Robert Sparks, F. H. Magee, Sam Monvery, Arthur Adams, Luther James, Lucille Meek, Roy Willis, Nancy Johnson, James Redman and the honor guest.

CAN'T FIND WORDS TO EXPRESS HER DEEP GRATITUDE

Louisa Brayer's "Herbible" Rheumatism and Other Ills Surrender To Nerve-Worth

The following extraordinary story, contained in the Springfield, Ohio, News-Record, does not lie.

"The Trouble Began Ten Years Ago. I have suffered terrible pains from rheumatism in my shoulders, elbows, knees and hands. Finger joints badly swollen and stiff. Had indigestion and other stomach troubles. Would spit and belch up our meals. Could not find anything that would give me any relief so that I could do my housework. I purchased one bottle of Nerve-Worth and took it as directed and the rheumatic pains and other troubles have left me. I cannot fully express my gratitude for the wonderful cure of Nerve-Worth and its prompt action."

Cocoanut Oil Fine For Washing Hair
If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and is very harmful. Multifaceted coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multifaceted coconut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

JOHN BARRYMORE in "On the Quiet"

The story of "On the Quiet" starring John Barrymore, which will be displayed at the Lyric tonight and tomorrow, is in the nature of a rollicking farce. It deals with a Yale student who wins a heiress despite the opposition of her guardian, but who has the right under the terms of the will of her father, to cut her off with only a paltry four millions if she marries against his wishes, while she chooses a husband acceptable to him, she is to receive twenty millions. Barrymore, "in bad" with the brother from the start, and the lovers, fearing a separation, marry secretly though they seemingly acquiesce in the demand of the brother that Barrymore go back to Yale for three years to complete his college course. Complications arise through the loss by the bride of the marriage certificate which reaches the hand of a blacksmithing private detective, but before the brother learns the truth he is tricked by Barrymore into giving his consent to the marriage.

There is an abundance of soapy, laugh provoking situations throughout, and you will enjoy every minute of it. A clever Christie comedy, "Know Thy Wife" is also on the program. The Lyric is cool these warm nights.

THE MOVIES

PITFALLS OF A BIG CITY WILLIAM FOX PRODUCTION

At the Columbia Tonight Only

"Pitfalls of a Big City" is a truly remarkable photoplay. This William Fox production at the Columbia tonight and tomorrow, gives a wonderfully realistic picture of the seamy side of life in a great city. It is an interesting study of the world of thieves and pick-pockets and crooks in general, and as true to life as skilled hands could make it.

The director spent several weeks photographing slum districts and studying the annals of crime, so that he might give a true version of this phase of life. "Pitfalls of a Big City" as shown certainly lives up to its title.

Gladys Brockwell, as the heroine, gives a remarkable portrayal of a woman-crook who has resolved to be honest and who stands by her resolution despite every obstacle. The play abounds in thrilling situations, and carries a moral that all who read it, it is a true morality play.

THEATRICAL

The crowd of theatre goers gathered before the Millbrook Casino Thursday night to see "The Girl of the Secret Service" was double that which witnessed the opening engagement of the Cooper-Morris stock company, Monday night. The entire company was featured in the play last night, including 12 for the first time Miss Lella Hall, a former woman, Miss Alice Smith, and Miss Dorothy Varner, all in splendid roles, who also appeared in the production of the evening night for other members of the cast. Of the men, Miss Fred Wagner, and Miss Lella Hall, were the stars of the evening. The Cooper-Morris stock company is painted by the scene artists C. Allen and Claude Lutz.

With the inspiration of the demonstration and responsive audience which made an encouraging showing, the company played up to their highest standard so that patrons carried away a most favorable impression of every member of the stock company and their ability after last night's performance.

The same play will be presented this evening.

A matinee will be given Saturday.

"The Rainbow Trail," Zane Grey's Famous Novel, Starring William Farnum, At The Strand Tonight.

The many readers of Zane Grey's novels will welcome the announcement that his dramatic masterpiece, "THE RAINBOW TRAIL" will be presented on the Strand screen tonight. William Farnum, whom you will remember for his excellent work as Lassiter in "RIDERS OF THE PURPLE SAGE" is again starred in this sequel to that screen success.

"THE RAINBOW TRAIL" is as big and overwhelming as the mountains and far-flung plains which form its setting. As the sequel to "RIDERS OF THE PURPLE SAGE" this picture takes up the fortunes of Lassiter and Jane Witherston and the girl, Fay Luckin, years after they have been locked up in a lost canyon. Not only does Mr. Farnum portray the role of Lassiter, the two men and terror of the Utah border, but he also takes the part of Sheriff, a two-fisted fighting man who goes to the rescue of the innocent people. "THE RAINBOW TRAIL" is a great, big, primitive love story, set in the scenery of the Grand Canyon of Colorado. A Lloyd comedy and a Burton Holmes Travelogue will be shown also.

At the Arvaco Tonight

Two good Western pictures are on tonight's program. One of these headline attractions is a two reel Tom Mix special feature, filled with more comedy than any of his hundreds of other productions. "The Moving Picture Cowboy" is the title of this Mix feature, a farce comedy for sure. "Eloise of the Glad Heart" is the title of the other multiple reel Western. A reel of screaming comedy will close the program.

Marguerite Clark, Harold Lockwood, and Jack Pickford at the Temple Tonight in "Wildflower."

One of the most notable casts ever assembled in one production will be seen in "WILDFLOWER," the Paramount attraction at the Temple tonight. Moving picture lovers will remember this picture as the first starring vehicle of Miss Clark, who will also remember that handsome Harold Lockwood is her leading man, while popular Jack Pickford plays the juvenile role. "WILDFLOWER" is painted as a child of no

Games This Week
 Reiders vs. Steel Plant, Friday evening, June 6.
 Solvay vs. Drew, Saturday afternoon June 7.

In a game that was as closely played as a knife fight, the Solvay team made the N. & W. boys take to the tall and stout at the Seventeenth street grounds last evening, by the score of 12 to 6. The victors showed they had plenty of reserve power and plenty of iron in their blood, for when the battle had reached the half-way station, or might close there, the Solvay team looked to be completely out of the running. At the close of the first half of the third inning the score stood 6 to 0 in favor of the railroad boys, and it really looked as though everything was over but the shouting. But at this time the P. & C. boys got going and chased in a half dozen runs before they quit. Time stopped around the bases like the opening parade of the Wallace-Hagaback circus, and their performance seemed to take all the starch out of the railroad boys, who submitted quite meekly thereafter. The fact of the matter is that the railroaders, while they had a plentiful supply of batting talent, could not pick the right batter. The work of tall Jim Wyckoff, who started the game for the N. & W., was far excellent in the first two innings. He seemed to have the solvay boys swinging like a fan. But in the third he lost control completely and began to imagine he was chucking at "sluggers" babies on a rack. For he plunked the first two men he faced in the slats and started his own undoing right then and there. The next batter to face him lusted the pellet for a single and then he forced a runner home by walking. Rollins, James popped to third and had Wyckoff settled right then and there. His team might have escaped annihilating, but Meyers, who swings a wicked club against right hand hurlers, slapped a pretty single to middle and Ward followed suit. Manager Delamater thought this a pretty good time to show his prowess as a batter and he blazed a double to left that cleared the sacks. Manager Delamater made his two cushion shot off Horner, who had taken Wyckoff's place. Burton coming up for the second time in the inning, whacked a single to left and the manager rolled home a second too late for he was tagged on a pretty throw from right. While the Solvay boys treated Wyckoff pretty rough, they showed no sympathy for his successor, Mr. Horner, attending to his case in the fourth when they hammered home five runs, coupled with some inferior work on the part of the N. & W. infield. Buchanan walked for a starter, while Frizzell beat out a punt to third and both runners moved up on a wild throw by Mantel. Rollins walked, beating the sacks, and two runners came to port on James' single. Out went Horner and in went Folbert, a fast dinger, who showed plenty of nerve and much skill. He fanned Meyers for a starter and got Ward on a fly roller. But McNamara singled, scoring Rollins and James.

WILLARD VISITS FIGHT SCENE

TOLEDO, June 6.—Heavyweight champion Jess Willard accompanied by Tex Rickard, visited the Casino grounds, where he will do his training for the championship bout on July 1. Willard did not like the site selected for the ring in which he will do his boxing and suggested that it be changed to the ring which was placed further south, near a grove of trees. The change will give the public a better view of the champion at work and may throw the ring in the shadows rather than in the hot rays of the sun when he is practicing punches upon his sparring partners.

NEW RECORD MAY BE HUNG UP AT LATONIA DERBY NEXT SATURDAY

Should the Latonia track remain in its present fast condition, a new Derby mark may be hung up there Saturday, if the fast work of some of the candidates is indicative of what is coming.

Pastorcan, an imported colt by Flint Rock, has shown the fastest work, 2:23. The track record is 2:29 2/5, held jointly by the ill-fated Governor Gray, who was burned to death a short time after winning the Derby in 1911, and John Lord, Liberty Loan, winner in 1917, made the next best time, 2:30 4/5. Harry Payne Whitney's Jehzen collapsed home last year in 2:31.

After Men Who Can Hurt Jess Willard May Buy Cardinals

TOLEDO, O., June 6.—Sparring partners capable of handling out punishment instead of absorbing it, is the paramount need in Jess Willard's training camp if the champion is to get into a hardened condition for his championship contest with Jack Dempsey here July 4, boxing experts declared today.

Willard can stand with his hands hitting power and capable of stopping at the sides if he so desires and allow a foe with either hand.

the present sparring partners to drive blows at his jaw and stomach without effect, but sporting experts said that was no indication that he could expose his vulnerable parts when Dempsey began shooting at him. The challenger is a fighter of the Fitzsimmons type, with powerful forearms and terrific hitting power and capable of stopping a foe with either hand.

LOCAL PEOPLE WILL SEE BIG FIGHT

Harry Reere, a roller in the White-Glacier plant is setting up a party of friends here to go to Toledo, Ohio, to witness the Willard-Dempsey fight. An effort will be made to have 25 fight fans in the local delegation.

Why Geers Is Smiling

One of the trustees upon which "Pop" Geers is depending for the 200 and 250 meeting classes this summer is the Ohio game Golden Spler 2-00 3/4.

Golden Spler is a half mile track star and has had a taste of Grand Circuit society having won a race at Columbus last fall.

The mare is owned by Wilbur Myers, Springfield, and has been raced by Harry Stokes, but was turned over to "Pop" last fall and has been making the veteran smile by the way she has been taking her work at Billings Park this spring.

WIRES TURNED BACK TO OWNERS

Telegraphers Strike In Ten States

Burleson Retains A Small Part Of Control Of Wires

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Telegraph and telephone companies, whose lines have been controlled and operated by the government since last August 1, were ordered last night to resume independent operation on their own account by Postmaster General Burleson. The post-office department, however, under the terms of Mr. Burleson's order, retains a measure of control of the services, pending final legislative action by Congress.

Regulations prohibiting discrimination against wire employees because of union affiliations, maintaining existing rates and charges, and insuring companies to keep special accounts of facilities and equipment, even themselves, and the government are retained in effect under the order issued by the postmaster-general.

Reasons are stated. Mr. Burleson accompanied the order with a statement giving the reasons that compelled him to take the action. He asserted that the president had recommended the return of the wires to the companies, but that the senate interstate commerce committee having indicated that a complete return was advisable and the house committee having through a majority vote manifested a desire for a complete return, he felt it his duty to return operative control to the wire private owners.

In a statement accompanying the order, the postmaster-general stated that the existing rates would remain in effect and that orders for the discharge of employees by the companies would be subject to the approval of the post-office department.

DEATH TOLL IN MINE DISASTER REACHES 83 DEAD; FIFTY INJURED

WILKESBARRE, PA., June 6.—State and local authorities today were conducting separate investigations into the explosion in a tunnel of the Delaware and Hudson Coal Company, yesterday, that cost the lives of eighty-three men and the injury of fifty others. A large number of the injured were seriously burned and mangled and it is feared many of them cannot recover.

There was a difference of opinion as to the exact cause of the accident, which occurred while the men were on their way to work in a tunnel of the mine. Some of the men were killed by a large explosion of black powder. According to survivors, the overhauled trolley wire sagged when the train had penetrated the tunnel about 200 feet and touched a keg of powder, forming a short circuit and setting off the powder. Officials of the company, after an investigation, expressed the opinion that a steel bar or drill carried by one of the men came in contact with the wire forming the short circuit which caused the powder to give way.

Early reports that the mine laws had been violated by carrying men and explosives on the same train were denied by Steward Butten, chief of the state bureau of mines. Mr. Butten said the state mine code contained no regulations on the transportation of explosives. He declared this was a grievous omission and that he would issue regulations on his own responsibility which would check careless methods and insist that they be obeyed until they can be enacted into law.

INVADING FORCES ARE DRIVEN OUT

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The invading forces have been completely driven out of Costa Rican territory and have taken refuge in Nicaragua, said a cablegram received today by Charles Lora, Costa Rican representative here. The message further stated it was believed the Nicaraguan government would concentrate against the forces and thus prevent the shedding of blood and the stirring up of hatred between the two republics.

"No American marines have been landed in any Costa Rican port," declared Mr. Lora in a statement referring to press dispatches saying U. S. marines had landed at Puntarenas and Port Limon.

The Northwestern Holds The Record On Rewriting Old Policyholders

During the year 1918 the Northwestern Mutual issued $145,000, 250 or 318,000 lives, 11,001 of these applicants, or 402 per cent of the total, were old policyholders and $22,500,000 of the total volume, or 502 per cent, was granted to men who were old policyholders.

The Company claims that such a record is not only unparalleled in the entire country, but is a stronger endorsement of the Northwestern Mutual than anything else could possibly be. KEYMEN ORDERED OUT IN SUPPORT OF THE STRIKE IN ATLANTA

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Employees of the Western Union Telegraph Company in Florida, Alabama, Georgia, South and North Carolina, West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi and New Orleans, La., who are members of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union were ordered to go on a strike immediately last night by S. J. Koenekamp, president of the organization.

President Koenekamp said the strike order was issued in support of Atlanta telegraph and telephone workers who went out several days ago and asserted that it would unquestionably be followed by a nationwide strike within a few days.

"I took the step immediately upon learning that Postmaster General Burleson had ordered wires returned to the companies," Mr. Koenekamp asserted. "Authority for it was extended by a strike vote taken some time ago, which has kept held up to see if we could not negotiate a peaceable settlement. It is very likely that the strike will also involve the Postal company but that cannot be determined yet."

ATLANTA, GA., June 6.—Confidence in the outcome of the strike ordered by Commercial Telegraphers Union against the Western Union Telegraph Company in the ten southern states was expressed today by leaders on both sides.

H. C. Weston, general manager of the southern division of the Western Union, declared in a statement that the return of its wire properties by Postmaster General Burleson "gives our executives a full and clear hand to fight to a finish and the public can trust that we will do it."

P. G. Foulle, president of the Atlanta council of the union speaking for himself and C. E. Mann, southern organizer of the union, intimated that a nationwide strike would be ordered should that prove necessary.

The strike in this territory was ordered last night in support of the local strike against the Western Union which was inaugurated Wednesday in sympathy with telephone employees who went out Monday alleging discrimination against union members.

Solvay Overcomes Lead And Defeats N. & W. Aggregation

Railroad Team Sent Three Pitchers To The Mound, The Score Was 12 To 6

Games This Week
Excelsior vs. Steel Plant, Friday evening, June 6.
Selby vs. Drew, Saturday evening, June 7.

In a game that was as loosely played as a kiltina in the wind, the Solvay team made the N. & W. boys take to the tail and uncut at the Seventeenth street grounds last evening, by the score of 12 to 6. The victors showed they had hundreds of reserve power and plenty of lead in their blood, for when the battle had reached the half-way station, or, mightily close there, the Solvay team looked to be completely out of the running. At the close of the first half of the third inning the score stood 5 to 0 in favor of the railroad boys, and it really looked as though everything was over, but the Solvay boys got going and chased in a half dozen runs before they quit. They trooped around the bases like the opening parade of the Wallace-Haguebrook circus, and their performance seemed to take all the starch out of the railroad boys, who submitted quite meekly thereafter. The fact of the matter is that the railroaders, while they had a plentiful supply of batting talent, could not pick the right hurler. The work of tall Jim Wyckoff, who started the game for the N. & W., was far excellent in the first two innings. He seemed to have the Solvay boys swinging like a farm gate. But in the third he lost control completely and began to imagine he was chucking at "nigger" battles on a sack. For he plunked the first two men he faced in the stunts and started his own unraveling right then and there. The next batter to face him hosted the pellet for a single and then he forced a runner home by walking. Toffins, James popped to third and had Wyckoff settled right then and there. His team might have escaped annihilation. But Meyers, who swings a wicked club against right hand hurling, slapped a pretty single to middle and Ward followed with a single. Delamater thought this a pretty good time to show his prowess as a batter, and he blazed a double to left that cleared the sacks. Manager Delamater made his two cushion shot off Horner, who had taken Wyckoff's place. Burton coming up for the second time in the inning, whacked a single to left and the manager rolled home a second run late for he was nipped on a pretty throw from right.

While the Solvay boys treated Wyckoff pretty rough, they showed no sympathy for his successor, Mr. Horner, attending to his case in the fourth when they hammered home five runs, coupled with some inferior work on the part of the N. & W. infield. Baughman walked for a starter, while Frizzell beat out a line to third and both runners moved up on a wild throw by Mantel. Toffins walked, jamming the sacks, and two runners came to port on James' single. Out went Horner and in went Hubert, a port flinger, who showed plenty of nerve and much skill. He fanned Meyers for a starter and got Ward on a tiny roller. But McNamara singled, scoring Toffins and James, and he took third on a wild peg by Keyser. Delamater was safe on Mantel's error, McNamara scoring. Burton forced Delamater.

The Solvay boys made one more in the sixth. Ward and McNamara fanned as fast as a club swinger. Debo dropped Delamater's letter, going to second on the misplay. Burton singled to middle and Delamater came home. Baughman filed to right. The N. & W. boys got two in the second. F. Keyser rolled to short, but Thimmes was safe at first after fanning, due to the fact that Manager Delamater could not locate the sack with his feet after James had tossed to the base in plenty of time. Debo was hit by a pitched ball. J. Keyser fanned. Thimmes and Debo scored when James threw wild to second. Wyckoff singled to short, but Reinhard rolled out.

In the third the railroaders made three on Mantel's single. F. Keyser's one baser and Thimmes triple, a terrific drive to left for three sacks. The big catcher rolled home on a passed ball.

One more was made in the third on hits by J. Keyser, Horner and Reinhard. The game was a long drawn out affair, requiring one hour and forty-five minutes to play. However the crowd stuck to the finish. The attendance was very gratifying, it being estimated that more than 200 fans were present. The grand stands have been enlarged and a fence erected along the third base line. All in all, the grounds are being placed in fine shape and when the players get a little more practice some terrific struggles will be staged. The score:

WILLARD VISITS FIGHT SCENE

TOLEDO, June 6.—Heavyweight champion Jess Willard, accompanied by Tex Rickard, visited the Casino grounds, where he will do his training for the championship bout on July 4. Yesterday Willard expressed himself as pleased with the camp. Willard did not like the site selected for the ring in which he will do his boxing and suggested that it be changed, so the ring was placed farther south, near a grove of trees. The change will give the public a better view of the champion at work and may throw the ring in the shadows rather than in the hot rays of the sun when he is practicing punches upon his sparring partners.

NEW RECORD MAY BE HUNG UP AT LATONIA DERBY NEXT SATURDAY

Should the Latonia track remain in its present condition, a new Derby mark may be hung up there Saturday. If the fast work-outs of some of the candidates is indicative of what is coming, Pastoran, an imported colt by Flut Rock, has shown the fastest work, 2:30. The track record is 2:30 2/5, held jointly by the ill-fated Governor Gray, who was burned to death a short time after winning the Derby in 1911, and Leon Grant, Elderly Leon, winner in 1917, made the race best time, 2:30 4/5. Harry Payne Widney's Jargon galloped home in a year in 2:33.

Takes Off Uniform

ST. LOUIS, June 6.—Manager Rickard is no longer in uniform. He has taken the advice of friends and is managing the team from the bench, instead of from the coaching lines. However many delays are prevented as he is not out there to argue with umpires and hold long consultations with his players.

One of the trotters upon which "Pop" Geers is depending for the 2:40 and 2:40 trotting classes this summer is the Ohio mare Golden Spler. Golden Spler is a half mile track star and has had a taste of Grand Circuit society having won a race at Colonus last fall. The mare is owned by William Myers, Springfield, and has been raced by Harry Stokes, but was turned over to "Pop" last fall and has been making the veteran smile by the way she has been taking her work at Willaga Park this spring.

THESE PICTURES OF JESS TELL A STORY

Willard, heavyweight champion, as he looked when training for his battle with Jack Johnson, April 5, 1915, and as he looks now. Jess Willard is no longer the young man he was when he won the heavyweight title from Jack Johnson four years ago. The pictures above show how he has aged. All of which means that Willard must train hard to bring back the top and pep he had four years ago if he hopes to walk out of the ring at Toledo July Fourth with the heavyweight crown still on his head.

AS THE FIGURES TELL THE TALE

BALTIMORE has just completed the most complete and exhaustive survey of local conditions to get at the causes of poverty and the means of removing them ever conceived in like human effort.

Men skilled in social laws, medicine, mathematics, economics and social practices were on the committee conducting the survey. The findings made are astounding and set at naught many favorite theories and commonly accepted conclusions.

Minute examinations were made into the history, experience and being of over 8,500 families, the poorest of the poor and all of them receiving either public or organization charity aid. It was found that forty-seven per cent of the cases arose directly from sickness or physical disability. Something over twenty-five per cent grew out of immorality or crime of some sort. But mark this, only 187 families were destitute because of the excessive use of intoxicants. There was considerable more want among the Negroes than among the native whites and quite remarkably there were almost twice as many poverty stricken families with foreign born parents than there were among those with native born. Still more striking this heavier proportion was among foreigners who had been residents of Baltimore over ten years.

The average size of the better than eight thousand families was three persons. It was determined that seldom did the exceedingly large family have anything to do with poverty.

The striking finding of all, one that upsets every claim of the social worker and the universal belief, was that infant mortality was much less among the distressingly poor than for the entire city.

Certainly, as said already, the findings of the survey were astounding, it is disappointing, however, that as the committee went so painstakingly into the matter, that we are not given its conclusions on how poverty is to be eradicated.

THEIR GALLANT CHAMPION

THE New York Times refers to Congressman King, of Ohio. Sorry, indeed, rather ashamed, to say it, but if there is any Congressman King from Ohio we have never heard of him before, so so much as remember his name.

That, however, isn't of importance, nor, it may be thought is Congressman King, of Ohio. The thing that counts is that Congressman King of Ohio has made a discovery, a wonderful discovery that no other Ohio legislator, real or putative, would ever have bumped up against. This is nothing more or less, and merely it is surely enough, that this more daylight question is a fight between democracy and plutocracy. Never would we have suspected it, now or within a million years hadn't Congressman King found it out. It neither needs more proof than his statement, either, to establish it. Wall street invented it and perpetuated it upon us country people who are the only genuine blow in the bottle democracy because most of us, not including us, always vote the Republican ticket. Why did Wall street do that thing felonious? To more expeditiously shear more lambs from the rural districts. It is all plain enough. Downing street, London, and Wall street, New York, are both and of course, cheek by jowl at that game. London time is four hours faster than New York. The more daylight trims that down one fourth. No evidence could be more convincing.

Only is one little fact overlooked by Congressman King, of Ohio. More daylight is a blasted British invention and London practices it the same as New York. When the Downing street clock is raced one hour ahead Wall street's ticker is doing exactly the same thing.

GIVING IT A GRIP

THERE is a Senator King, of Utah, who is neither myth, or else unknown as is Congressman King, of Ohio. There would therefore be no possibility of confounding them, even if one did not act, while the other merely gufs.

We like Senator King of Utah. He seems to have real red blood in his veins. Into the senate he has introduced a bill to make it an offense, punishable by death, to cause the transportation of a bomb, or to belong to any organization advocating the overthrow of the government. Evidently, he understands the time has come when we must quit palvering and mauling with the red gentry and lay iron grip upon them. The reds are murderers, they are traitors. They should be treated as such. And being such they should be treated as traitorous rebels. No court of law should deal with them, but a court martial. Too much experience has the country had in the propensity of shrewd lawyers and stupid juries to interpose alms technicalities in the one instance and a lawless sentiment in the other to acquit when there has been no harm actually done. These fellows deal in violence and blood, by violence and blood should it be meted out to them.

We are not strong with the preachers on this prize ring stuff, thinking one automobile race more brutal and demoralizing than all the ring and bull fights put together; neither are we an expert in appraising bruisers, but if "Hillard" doesn't want Dempsey into a pulp in ten rounds, it'll be the most wretched guess we ever made.

We are looking for the villain and bloody will be our revenge when we catch up with him. A friend on the West Side telephoned us to come over and gather a gallon of her strawberries, which were as large as walnuts. "The gent" who personated us on the phone went over and gathered them and nary a berry have we seen.

It is said, isn't it, that if it rains before the fourth of June there will be no blackberry crop. It didn't rain until Wednesday and it was a puny sprinkle at that. If the plants keep up the promise of their bloom there'll be enough jelly and jam produced in 84th county to pall our army in France.

A metropolitan paper speaks of Senator Mason of Illinois. May be it feels especially kind to the Snicker state and didn't want to reproach it with sending Lawrence V. Sherman to the state, "Billy" Mason being considered poor enough.

You never can tell, what isn't going to occur either. Council held a session Wednesday evening, heard a good deal about a city reduction plant, and said not a word about a new issue of bonds.

Yes, it is hot, but it has got a right to be at this season and in this zone.

POLLY AND HER PALS

THE WISHING PLANE

Many hours after leaving the plane and princess, Jack and Jane, from their seats in the airplane, sighted a giant harbor in the distance.

Captain Brave had seen it, too, and knew what it was, for he had been steering for it ever since they left the Azores. So when Jack said, "What place is this?" Captain Brave said, "It is Brazil."

Then he told the children it was the harbor at which the millions of American soldiers were headed on their way to the front from America during the war, and where most of the supplies for the American soldiers and the allies were unloaded.

He told them how a steady stream of boats had run from American harbors to Brazil and back during the war to carry the soldiers and supplies across.

As the plane drew nearer the harbor, the children could see miles and miles of docks. Captain Brave told them how eleven miles of docks had been built in a wonderfully short space of time by America so that the boats would have plenty of room to land.

Captain Brave brought the plane to a stop in the harbor alongside the dock and they all climbed out. As the children walked along the dock they saw mountains and mountains of crates and boxes and huge piles of lumber and steel. Jack wondered why there should be so much of it after the war was ended. Until Captain Brave told him that most of the supplies to our army were being used now to help the folks in the war-torn countries to start their factories and ships again and rebuild their homes and churches and stores destroyed during the war.

The Bretons, for that is what the people in that part of France are called, knew by Captain Brave's uniform and the clothes that Lady Jane and the children wore that they must be from America, and all had pleasant smiles for the children and their friends. Soldiers along the dock who were directing the moving of the supplies on and off the ships, saluted Captain Brave and some of them spoke to him.

Jack and Jane gazed curiously at the strange clothes the folk along the street wore, and you would too, but we will tell you more about that later. Jack's curiosity got the better of him and he said, "Where are we going now, Captain Brave?"

"You are going to pay your new visit to a real army camp," said Captain Brave. "We are going out to the camp where the soldiers stopped on their arrival in France and where they waited for boats to take them back after the war."

Jack clasped his hands in awe and Jane was tickled, too, for both had heard so much about army camps. Uncle George had written them long letters about life at camp, but I will have to wait until tomorrow to tell you about this one.

NEW YORK DAY-BY-DAY

O. O. MENTYRE.

NEW YORK, June 6.—Thoughts while trying to write this article. Twenty minutes and not a thought. Funny about that old story in Brooklyn kidnapping a young widow in her stolen kimono. Nice bobbed girls in the village going to start a magazine. Speaking of magazines, my last manuscript hasn't been returned. Hope the woman across the court won't try to sing today. Funny! She just started.

Whatever became of Gaby Desires? All my friends going to the country. Pretty tough to be poor. Will Rogers is taking his whole family to California. Going to stay in pictures for good. Soft life. Wonder how it'll like? I was a fool to pay the whole dinner check. Listen at her screen! I hope she strains a valve or something.

Ought to have a good time playing tennis tomorrow at Forest Hills. Wish I could play a set with Far. Bainter. Getting old, but I got young ideas. May long going to England next month. Hope he finds a writer who won't leave his characters meet someone of Claring Cross.

Can't believe that story of Arthur Huch's about the educated frog. Still they educated him. See the new luxury law tax is applicable to brass knucklers. Also aromatic onions. Yes, almost forgot, and pomades, too.

See Broadway has a new after the-atre place. Everything in darkness. Black velvet hangings. Only thin, pale light of the moon. Waiters have to carry electric search-lights. Still New York's most popular tea-room is almost pitch dark.

Haven't been a clumsy murder in the New York papers for weeks. Hear a woman high in society is spilling some inside society chatter in one of the afternoon papers. There she hit High C and something busted. Think I'll eat early and go to a burlesque show. Haven't been to one since last summer.

The House of Street and Smith is planning to turn one of their widely read fiction magazines into one of the large and fat, glossy paper illustrated magazines. Dark flow whispers that it is to go into competition with a magazine that kept into sudden popularity by dealing with interesting personalities.

New writers are to be given a chance along with the highly paid and established screenwriters. The new magazine is to make his bow in the late summer and Lee Brown, formerly of the New York Times, is to become the editorial director. He has just returned from France and is writing a book dealing with the Yankee in England.

There is no more interesting publishing house in America than Street and Smith. Every writer of prominence got his start there. The majority of their publications depend upon their circulation sales for revenue and the prices are not so high to writers—but they pay immediately upon acceptance. The magazine paying higher prices and looking for new blood almost always turn to the Street and Smith writers. A writer after takes his story to the publishing office, waits outside while the editor reads it, and if it is accepted he can stop at the publisher's window and get his money on the way out.

Paul Nicholson is in a play near a theatre where Ed Wyne is holding forth. The other day both were having business. Nicholson got a few minutes away and walked over to Wyne's office, got in the stage door and onto the stage where Wyne was playing. "Hello, Ed! When are you going to spend the summer?" he asked. His answer, brother mine, and walked off. Shortly after that Nicholson was on the stage when Wyne came across the street, and out in front of the footlights, saying: "I think I'll spend it at Great Neck. Where are you going to spend yours?" It fashed Nicholson so much that he kissed the wrong chorus girl. Those actor folks are such darn devil cut-ups.

Vacation is here and all the joys. That folks can give to wishing. And all the world to play them in. And we'll rest while fishing.

The chirping birds in yonder tree, Call forth with vigor gladly; The mountain stream along the trail, Goes gurgling by in laughter.

The bees among the honey puffs, Go buzzing with a joyful song; The spider butts with restless true His castles while in morning dew.

DEPOSITIONS INTRODUCED IN THE FORD CASE

ME. CLEMENS, JUNE 6. Depositions from officials of the Standard Oil Company and International Harvester Company were among those introduced today in the libel suit of Henry Ford against the Chicago Tribune. Editorials which the plaintiff contends show "prejudgment on the part of the Tribune also were read by Attorney William Lucking.

The depositions of the officials of the two big corporations was deemed pertinent to suit by the plaintiff in connection with his charge that the Tribune wanted war with Mexico, because it would benefit the Harvester company in obtaining sugar from Yucatan and the Standard Oil Company in the matter of Mexican oil.

The editorials read into the record included one headed "Butter fruit" in which this contention, emphasized by the plaintiff, occurred:

"Five holds a ripe apple to our lips in Mexico and butter fruit in Harvester."

Mr. Ford alleges that this editorial supports his charge that the Tribune desired war with Mexico so that American munitions would be diverted from other countries to the use of American troops on this continent.
